AAUW National ¡Adelante! Books and Online Discussions for Feb/March 2017

In 2014, 41 percent of books reviewed by the New York Times were by women; for Harper's Magazine, it was 28 percent. The numbers are even worse for women of color: 15 percent for the New York Times and 7 percent for Harper's Magazine

That's why AAUW national created the ¡Adelante! Book of the Month Club: to spotlight engrossing stories and writing by women from all backgrounds. AAUW also connects members to some of the featured authors through web discussions. Go to <http://www.aauw.org/resource/adelante-book-of-the-month-club/#events> to register to participate in upcoming online discussions for February and March selections.

FLORYNCE "FLO" KENNEDY
THE LIFE OF A BLACK FEMINIST RADICAL

Florynce "Flo" Kennedy: The Life of a Black Feminist Radical by Sherie M. Randolph. Discussion - February 9, 2017, 7:30 p.m. ET

"Often photographed in a cowboy hat with her middle finger defiantly in the air, Florynce "Flo" Kennedy was a vibrant leader of the Black Power and feminist movements. In the first biography of Kennedy, Sherie M. Randolph traces the life and political influence of this bold and controversial radical activist. Rather than reacting to the predominantly white feminist movement, Kennedy brought the lessons of Black Power to white feminism. ..."

Sisters in Law: How Sandra Day O'Connor and Ruth Bader Ginsburg Went to the Supreme Court and Changed the World by Linda Hirshman. Discussion - March 28, 2017 8:00 p.m. ET

"The relationship between Sandra Day O'Connor and Ruth Bader Ginsburg — Republican and Democrat, Christian and Jew, western rancher's daughter and Brooklyn girl — transcends party, religion, region, and culture. Strengthened by each other's presence, these groundbreaking judges, the first and second to serve on the highest court in the land, have transformed the United States itself, making it a more equal place for all women..."
