As you may know, heart disease is the #1 killer of men and women in the United States. Are we at risk for heart disease? February is not just the month for chocolates, flowers, candy hearts, and cute Valentine's Day cards. February is American Heart Month; therefore let's give ourselves and loved ones a gift of a healthy heart by learning the risks for heart disease and stroke. Text and heart graphic adapted from <http://colpts.com/>

The Confidence Code: The Science and Art of Self-Assurance — What Women Should Know

By Katty Kay and Claire Shipman

The authors of the bestselling Womenomics provide an informative and practical guide to understanding the importance of confidence — and learning how to achieve it — for women of all ages and at all stages of their careers. Working women today are better educated and better qualified than ever before. Yet men still predominate in the corporate world. In The Confidence Code, Claire Shipman and Katty Kay argue that the key factor in that gap is confidence. Combining cutting-edge research in genetics, gender, behavior, and cognition with examples from their own lives and those of other successful women in politics, media, and business, Kay and Shipman go beyond admonishing women to “lean in.” Instead, they offer the inspiration and practical advice that women need to achieve the careers they want and deserve.

February—Black History Month

Disgruntled: A Novel

By Asali Solomon, 2001–02 AAUW American Fellow

Kenya Curtis is only 8 years old, but she knows that she’s different. It’s not because she’s black — most of the other students in the fourth-grade class at her West Philadelphia elementary school are, too. Maybe it’s because she celebrates Kwanzaa, or because she’s forbidden from reciting the Pledge of Allegiance. Maybe it’s because she calls her father “Baba” instead of “Daddy.” What Kenya does know is that her difference is
